The books and records of the Corporation may be kept outside the State of Delaware at such place or places as may from time to time be designated by the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE II
STOCKHOLDERS

Section 1. Place of Meetings. Meetings of the stockholders for the election of directors or for any other purpose shall be held at such time and place, either within or without the State of Delaware, as shall be designated from time to time by the Board of Directors and stated in the notice of the meeting or in a duly executed waiver of notice thereof.

Section 2. Annual Meetings. The annual meetings of stockholders shall be held on such date, and at such times as shall be designated from time to time by the Board of Directors and stated in the notice of the meeting, at which meetings the stockholders shall elect directors to the Board of Directors, and transact such other business as may properly be brought before the meeting. Unless otherwise provided by law, the Restated Certificate of Incorporation or these By-Laws, notice of the annual meeting stating the place, date and hour of the meeting, the means of remote communications, if any, by which stockholders and proxy holders may be deemed to be present in person and vote at such meeting and the record date for determining the stockholders entitled to vote at the meeting shall be given to each stockholder entitled to vote at such meeting not later than 10 days, and not earlier than 60 days, before the date of the meeting.

Section 3. Special Meetings. Special meetings of stockholders may for any purpose or purposes be called at any time only by the Board of Directors pursuant to a resolution adopted by a majority of the number of directors which the Corporation would have if there were no vacancies (the “Whole Board”). Unless otherwise provided by law, the Restated Certificate of Incorporation or these By-Laws, notice of a special meeting stating the place, date and hour of the meeting, the means of remote communications, if any, by which stockholders and proxy holders may be deemed to be present in person and vote at such meeting, the record date for determining the stockholders entitled to vote at the meeting and the purpose or purposes for which the meeting is called shall be given to each stockholder entitled to vote at such meeting not later than 10 days, and not earlier than 60 days, before the date of the meeting. At any special meeting of the stockholders, only such business shall be conducted as shall have been brought before the meeting by or at the direction of the Board of Directors and as stated in the notice of meeting.

Section 4. Quorum and Adjournment. (a) Except as otherwise provided by law or by the Restated Certificate of Incorporation, the holders of a majority in voting power of the capital stock of the Corporation issued and outstanding and entitled to vote at the meeting, present in person or represented by proxy, shall constitute a quorum at all meetings of the stockholders for the transaction of business, except that when a separate vote by a class or series of stock is required, the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of such class or series shall constitute a quorum entitled to take action with respect to that separate vote. If, however, such quorum shall not be present or represented at any meeting of the stockholders, the person presiding over the meeting of stockholders or the stockholders entitled to vote thereat, present in person or represented by proxy, shall, by a majority in voting power thereof, have the power to adjourn the meeting from time to time in accordance with Article II, Section 4(b).

(b) Any meeting of stockholders, annual or special, may adjourn from time to time to reconvene at the same or some other place, and notice need not be given of any such adjourned meeting if the time and place thereof are announced at the meeting at which the adjournment is taken. At such adjourned meeting at which a quorum shall be present or represented, any business may be transacted which might have been transacted at the meeting as originally noticed. If the adjournment is for more than 30 days, or if after the adjournment a new record date is fixed for the adjourned meeting, a notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given to each stockholder entitled to vote at the meeting. The person presiding over the meeting of stockholders or a majority of the shares so represented may adjourn the meeting from time to time, whether or not there is such a quorum. The stockholders present at a duly called meeting at which a quorum is present may continue to transact business until adjournment, notwithstanding the withdrawal of enough stockholders to leave less than a quorum.

Section 5. Notice of Stockholder Business. At an annual meeting of the stockholders, only such business shall be conducted as shall have been properly brought before the meeting. To be properly brought before an annual meeting, business must be (a) specified in the notice of meeting (or any supplement thereto) given by or at the direction of the Board of Directors or any committee thereof, (b) otherwise properly brought before the meeting by or at the direction of the Board of Directors or any committee thereof or (c) otherwise properly brought before the meeting by a stockholder of the Corporation who was a stockholder of record of the Corporation at the time the notice provided for in this Article II, Section 5 is delivered to the Secretary of the Corporation, who is entitled to vote at the meeting and who complies with the notice procedures set forth in this Article II, Section 5. For business to be properly brought before an annual meeting by a stockholder pursuant to clause (c) of the first sentence of this Article II, Section 5, the stockholder must have given timely notice thereof in writing to the Secretary of the Corporation and such business must otherwise be a proper matter for stockholder action. To be timely, a stockholder's notice must be delivered to or mailed and received by the Secretary of the Corporation at the principal executive offices of the Corporation not later than the close of business on the 60th day, nor earlier than the close of business on the 90th day, prior to the first anniversary of the previous year's annual meeting; provided, however, that in the event that the date of the annual meeting is more than 30 days before or more than 60 days after such anniversary date, notice by the stockholder must be so delivered not earlier than the close of business on the 90th day prior to such meeting and not later than the close of business on the later of (i) the 60th day prior to such meeting or (ii) the fifth day after public announcement of the date of such meeting is first made by the Corporation. In no event shall the public announcement of an adjournment or postponement of an annual meeting commence a new time period (or extend any time period) for the giving of a stockholder's notice as described above. A stockholder's notice to the Secretary shall set forth as to each matter the stockholder proposes to bring before the annual meeting (a) a brief description of the business desired to be brought before the annual meeting, the text of the proposed business (including the text of any resolutions proposed for consideration and in the event that such business includes a proposal to amend these By-Laws, the language of the proposed amendment), and the reasons for conducting such business at the annual meeting, (b) a representation that the stockholder is a holder of record of shares of the Corporation entitled to vote at the annual meeting and intends to appear in person or by proxy at the meeting to propose such business, (c) as to the stockholder giving the notice and the beneficial owner, if any, on whose behalf the proposal is made: (i) the name and record address of the stockholder proposing such business and the name and address of such beneficial owner, (ii) a list of the class or series and number of shares of capital stock of the Corporation which are owned beneficially and of record by the stockholder and such beneficial owner, if any, as of the date of the stockholder's notice, and a representation that the stockholder will notify the Corporation in writing of the class or series and number of such shares of capital stock of the Corporation owned of record and beneficially as of the record date for the meeting promptly following the later of the record date or the date notice of the record date is first publicly disclosed, (iii) any material interest of the stockholder and the beneficial owner, if any, on whose behalf the proposal is made, in such business, (iv) a description (including the names of any counterparties) of any agreement, arrangement or understanding with respect to such business between or among the stockholder or beneficial owner and any of its affiliates or associates, and any others acting in concert with any of the foregoing, and a representation that the stockholder will notify the Corporation in writing of any such agreement, arrangement or understanding in effect as of the record date for the meeting promptly following the later of the record date or the date notice of the record date is first publicly disclosed, and (v) a description (including the names of any counterparties) of any agreement, arrangement or understanding (including any derivative or short positions, profit interests, options, warrants, convertible securities, stock appreciation or similar rights, hedging transactions, and borrowed or loaned shares) that has been entered into as of the date of the stockholder's notice by, or on behalf of, the stockholder or beneficial owner or any of its affiliates or associates, whether or not such instrument or right shall be subject to settlement in underlying shares of capital stock of the Corporation, the effect or intent of which is to mitigate loss to, manage risk or benefit of share price changes for, or increase or decrease the voting power of the stockholder or beneficial owner or any of its affiliates or associates with respect to shares of stock of the Corporation, and a representation that the stockholder will notify the Corporation in writing of any such agreement, arrangement or understanding in effect as of the record date for the meeting promptly following the later of the record date or the date notice of the record date is first publicly disclosed, (d) whether either such stockholder or beneficial owner, alone or as part of a group, intends to solicit or participate in the solicitation of proxies from the holders of at least the percentage of the Corporation's outstanding shares required to approve the proposal and/or otherwise to solicit proxies from stockholders in support of the proposal and (e) any other information relating to such stockholder and beneficial owner, if any, required to be disclosed in a proxy statement or other filings required to be made in connection with solicitations of proxies for, as applicable, the proposal and/or for the election of directors in an election contest pursuant to and in accordance with Section 14(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Exchange Act") and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder. The foregoing notice requirements of this Article II,

Section 5 shall be deemed satisfied by a stockholder with respect to business (other than nominations) if the stockholder has notified the Corporation of his, her or its intention to present a proposal at an annual meeting in compliance with Rule 14a-8 (or any successor thereof) of the Exchange Act, and such stockholder's proposal has been included in a proxy statement prepared by the Corporation to solicit proxies for such annual meeting.

Notwithstanding anything in these By-Laws to the contrary, no business shall be conducted at an annual meeting except in accordance with the procedures set forth in this Article II, Section 5. Except as otherwise provided by law, the person presiding over the annual meeting shall, if the facts warrant, determine and declare to the meeting that business was not properly brought before the meeting and in accordance with the provisions of this Article II, Section 5, and if he or she should so determine, he or she shall so declare to the meeting and any such business not properly brought before the meeting shall not be transacted. Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this By-Law, a stockholder shall also comply with all applicable requirements of the Exchange Act, and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder with respect to the matters set forth in this By-Law. Nothing in this By-Law shall be deemed to affect any rights (i) of stockholders to request inclusion of proposals in the Corporation's proxy statement pursuant to Rule 14a-8 under the Exchange Act or (ii) of the holders of any series of Preferred Stock to elect directors under specified circumstances.

Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this Article II, Section 5, unless otherwise required by law, if the stockholder (or a qualified representative of the stockholder) does not appear at the annual meeting of stockholders to present the proposed business, such proposed business shall not be transacted, notwithstanding that proxies in respect of such vote may have been received by the Corporation. For purposes of this Article II, Section 5 and Article II, Section 6, to be considered a qualified representative of the stockholder, a person must be a duly authorized officer, manager or partner of such stockholder or must be authorized by a writing executed by such stockholder or an electronic transmission delivered by such stockholder to act for such stockholder as proxy at the meeting of stockholders and such person must produce such writing or electronic transmission, or a reliable reproduction of the writing or electronic transmission, at the meeting of stockholders.

Section 6. Notice of Stockholder Nominees. Only persons who are nominated in accordance with the procedures set forth in this Article II, Section 6 shall be eligible for election as directors. Nominations of persons for election to the Board of Directors may be made at an annual meeting of stockholders only (a) pursuant to the Corporation's notice of meeting (or any supplement thereto) given by or at the direction of the Board of Directors or any committee thereof, (b) otherwise brought before the meeting by or at the direction of the Board of Directors or any committee thereof or (c) by any stockholder of the Corporation who was a stockholder or record of the Corporation at the time the notice provided for in this Article II, Section 6 is delivered to the Secretary of the Corporation, who is entitled to vote for the election of directors at the meeting and who complies with the notice procedures set forth in this Article II, Section 6. Such nominations, other than those made by or at the direction of the Board of Directors, shall be made pursuant to timely notice in writing to the Secretary of the Corporation. To be timely, a stockholder's notice shall be delivered to or mailed and received by the Secretary of the Corporation at the principal executive offices of the Corporation not later than the close of business on the 60th day, nor earlier than the close of business on the 90th day, prior to the first anniversary of the previous year's annual meeting; provided, however, that in the event that the date of the annual meeting is more than 30 days before or more than 60 days after such anniversary date, notice by the stockholder must be so delivered not earlier than the close of business on the 90th day prior to such meeting and not later than the close of business on the later of (i) the 60th day prior to such meeting or (ii) the fifth day after public announcement of the date of such meeting is first made by the Corporation. In no event shall the public announcement of an adjournment or postponement of an annual meeting commence a new time period (or extend any time period) for the giving of a stockholder's notice as described above. Such stockholder's notice shall set forth (a) as to each person whom the stockholder proposes to nominate for election or re-election as a director: (i) the name, age, business address and residence address of such person, (ii) the principal occupation or employment of such person, (iii) the class or series and number of shares of capital stock of the Corporation which are owned beneficially and of record by such person and (iv) any other information relating to such person that is required to be disclosed in solicitations of proxies for election of directors, or is otherwise required, in each case pursuant to Regulation 14A under the Exchange Act (including, without limitation, such person's written consent to being named in the proxy statement as a nominee and to serving as a director if elected), and (b) as to the stockholder giving the notice and the beneficial owner, if any, on whose behalf the nomination is made: (i) the name and record address of the stockholder making such nomination and the name and address of such beneficial owner, (ii) a list of the class or series and number of shares of capital stock of the Corporation which are owned beneficially and of record by the stockholder and such beneficial owner, as of the date of the stockholder's notice, and a representation that the stockholder will notify the Corporation in writing of the class and number of such shares of capital stock of the Corporation owned of record and beneficially as of the record date for the meeting promptly following the later of the record date or the date notice of the record date is first publicly disclosed, (iii) any material interest of the stockholder and the beneficial owner, if any, on whose behalf the proposal is made, in such nomination, (iv) a description (including the names of any counterparties) of any agreement, arrangement or understanding with respect to such nomination between or among the stockholder or beneficial owner and any of its affiliates or associates and the nominee, and any others acting in concert with any of the foregoing, and a representation that the stockholder will notify the Corporation in writing of any such agreement, arrangement or understanding in effect as of the record date for the meeting promptly following the later of the record date or the date notice of the record date is first publicly disclosed, and (v) a description (including the names of any counterparties) of any agreement, arrangement or understanding (including any derivative or short positions, profit interests, options, warrants, convertible securities, stock appreciation or similar rights, hedging transactions, and borrowed or loaned shares) that has been entered into as of the date of the stockholder's notice by, or on behalf of, the stockholder or beneficial owner or any of its affiliates or associates, whether or not such instrument or right shall be subject to settlement in underlying shares of capital stock of the Corporation, the effect or intent of which is to mitigate loss to, manage risk or benefit of share price changes for, or increase or decrease the voting power of the stockholder or beneficial owner or any of its affiliates or associates with respect to shares of stock of the Corporation, and a representation that the stockholder will notify the Corporation in writing of any such agreement, arrangement or understanding in effect as of the record date for the meeting promptly following the later of the record date or the date notice of the record date is first publicly disclosed, (c) whether either such stockholder or beneficial owner, alone or as part of a group, intends to solicit or participate in the solicitation of proxies from the holders of at least the percentage of the Corporation's outstanding shares required to elect such nominee and/or otherwise to solicit proxies from stockholders in support of the nominee, (d) a representation that the stockholder is a holder of record of shares of the Corporation entitled to vote at the annual meeting and intends to appear in person or by proxy at the meeting to propose such nomination and (e) any other information relating to such stockholder and beneficial owner, if any, required to be disclosed in a proxy statement or other filings required to be made in connection with solicitations of proxies for the election of directors in an election contest pursuant to and in accordance with Section 14(a) of the Exchange Act and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder. The Corporation may require any proposed nominee to furnish such other information as the Corporation may reasonably require to determine the eligibility of such proposed nominee to serve as a director of the Corporation.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Article II, Section 6, in the event that the number of directors to be elected to the Board of Directors at the annual meeting is increased after the time period for which nominations would otherwise be due under this Article II, Section 6 and there is no public announcement by the Corporation naming the nominees for the additional directorships at least 70 days prior to the first anniversary of the preceding year's annual meeting, a stockholder's notice required by this Article II, Section 6 shall also be considered timely, but only with respect to nominees for the additional directorships, if it shall be delivered to the Secretary of the Corporation at the principal executive offices of the Corporation not later than the close of business on the fifth day following the day on which such public announcement is first made by the Corporation. For purposes of this Article II, Section 5 and Article II, Section 6, "public announcement" shall mean disclosure in a press release reported by the Dow Jones News Service, Associated Press or comparable national news service or in a document publicly filed by the Corporation with the Securities and Exchange Commission pursuant to Section 13, 14 or 15(d) of the Exchange Act. No person shall be eligible for election as a director of the Corporation unless nominated in accordance with the procedures set forth in this Article II, Section 6. Except as otherwise provided by law, the person presiding over the meeting shall, if the facts warrant, determine and declare to the meeting that a nomination was not made in accordance with the procedures prescribed by these By-Laws and, if he or she should so determine, he or she shall so declare to the meeting and the defective nomination shall be disregarded. Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this Article II, Section 6, a stockholder shall also comply with all applicable requirements of the Exchange Act and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder with respect to the matters set forth in this Article II, Section 6.

Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this Article II, Section 6, unless otherwise required by law, if the stockholder (or a qualified representative of the stockholder) does not appear at the annual meeting to present a nomination, such nomination shall be disregarded, notwithstanding that proxies in respect of such vote may have been received by the Corporation.

Section 7. Voting. Unless otherwise required by any applicable law, rules or regulations, the Restated Certificate of Incorporation or these By-Laws, all matters other than the election of directors brought before any meeting of stockholders at which a quorum is present shall, be decided by the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority in voting power of the shares of capital stock of the Corporation represented and entitled to vote at the meeting. Directors shall be elected by a plurality of the votes cast by shares of capital stock of the Corporation entitled to vote in the election at a meeting of stockholders at which a quorum is present. Except as otherwise provided by or pursuant to the provisions of the Restated Certificate of Incorporation including as set forth in any Preferred Stock Designation (as defined in Article FOURTH of the Restated Certificate of Incorporation), each stockholder entitled to vote at any meeting of stockholders shall be entitled to cast one vote for each share of the capital stock of the Corporation held by such stockholder which has voting power upon the matter in question. Such votes may be cast in person or by proxy executed in writing or authorized by electronic transmission (in such manner prescribed by the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware) but no proxy shall be voted on or after one year from its date. The Board of Directors, in its discretion, or the person presiding over the meeting of stockholders, in his or her discretion, may require that any votes cast at such meeting shall be cast by written ballot.

Section 8. Consent of Stockholders in Lieu of Meeting. Any action required or permitted to be taken by the stockholders of the Corporation may only be effected at an annual or special meeting of stockholders of the Corporation and may not be effected by any consent in writing by any such holders.

Section 9. Stock Ledger. Except as otherwise provided by law, the stock ledger of the Corporation shall be the only evidence as to who are the stockholders entitled to examine the stock ledger or the books of the Corporation, or to vote in person or by proxy at any meeting of stockholders.

Section 10. Postponement. Any previously scheduled meeting of stockholders, whether annual or special, may be postponed, rescheduled or cancelled by resolution of the Board of Directors upon public notice given prior to the date previously scheduled for such meeting of stockholders.

Section 11. Conduct of Meetings. Meetings of stockholders shall be presided over by the Chairman of the Board of Directors or, in the absence of the Chairman of the Board of Directors, the Chief Executive Officer or, in the absence of the Chairman of the Board of Directors and the Chief Executive Officer, by the President, or in the absence of all of the foregoing, by a person designated by the Board of Directors, or in the absence of a person so designated by the Board of Directors, by a chairman chosen at the meeting by the holders of a majority in voting power of the stock entitled to vote thereat, present in person or represented by proxy. The date and time of the opening and the closing of the polls for each matter upon which the stockholders will vote at a meeting shall be announced at the meeting by the person presiding over the meeting. The Board of Directors may adopt by resolution such rules and regulations for the conduct of the meeting of stockholders as it shall deem appropriate. Except to the extent inconsistent with such rules and regulations as adopted by the Board of Directors, the person presiding over any meeting of stockholders shall have the right and authority to convene and (for any or no reason) to recess and/or adjourn the meeting, to prescribe such rules, regulations and procedures and to do all such acts as, in the judgment of such presiding person, are appropriate for the proper conduct of the meeting. Such rules, regulations or procedures, whether adopted by the Board of Directors or prescribed by the presiding person of the meeting, may include, without limitation, the following: (i) the establishment of an agenda or order of business for the meeting; (ii) rules and procedures for maintaining order at the meeting and the safety of those present; (iii) limitations on attendance at or participation in the meeting to stockholders entitled to vote at the meeting, their duly authorized and constituted proxies or such other persons as the presiding person of the meeting shall determine; (iv) restrictions on entry to the meeting after the time fixed for the commencement thereof; and (v) limitations on the time allotted to questions or comments by participants. The presiding person at any meeting of stockholders, in addition to making any other determinations that may be appropriate to the conduct of the meeting, shall, if the facts warrant, determine and declare to the meeting that a matter or business was not properly brought before the meeting and if such presiding person should so determine, such presiding person shall so declare to the meeting and any such matter or business not properly brought before the meeting shall not be transacted or considered. Unless and to the extent determined by the Board of Directors or the person presiding over the meeting, meetings of stockholders shall not be required to be held in accordance with the rules of parliamentary procedure.

ARTICLE III DIRECTORS

Section 1. Number and Election of Directors; Term of Office. Subject to the rights of the holders of any series of Preferred Stock to elect directors under specified circumstances, the number of directors shall be fixed from time to time exclusively by the Board of Directors pursuant to a resolution adopted by a majority of the Whole Board. To the extent practicable, the backgrounds and experiences of the director nominees shall reflect the global operations of the Corporation. The directors, other than those who may be elected by the holders of any series of Preferred Stock under specified circumstances, shall, until the annual election of directors at the annual meeting of stockholders to be held in 2017, be divided, with respect to the time for which they severally hold office, into three classes. The term of office for the class of directors elected at the 2012 annual meeting of stockholders shall expire at the 2015 meeting; the term of office for the class of directors elected at the 2013 annual meeting of stockholders shall expire at the 2016 meeting; and the term of office for the class of directors elected at the 2014 annual meeting of stockholders shall expire at the 2017 annual meeting, with the members of each class to hold office until their successors are elected and qualified. Commencing with the election of directors at the 2017 annual meeting of stockholders, the classification of the directors shall terminate and all directors shall be elected annually and serve until the next annual meeting of stockholders or until their earlier death, resignation, removal or disqualification. Any director may resign at any time upon giving notice in writing or by electronic transmission to the Secretary. Directors need not be stockholders.

Section 2. Chairman of the Board of Directors. The Chairman of the Board of Directors shall preside at all meetings of the stockholders and of the Board of Directors. The Chairman of the Board of Directors may hold such responsibilities with respect to the governance of the Corporation as from time to time may be assigned by the Board of Directors. The Chairman of the Board of Directors shall be elected from among the directors.

Section 3. Vacancies. Subject to the rights of the holders of any class or series of Preferred Stock, and unless the Board of Directors otherwise determines, vacancies resulting from death, resignation, retirement, disqualification, removal from office or other cause, and newly created directorships resulting from any increase in the authorized number of directors may be filled only by a majority vote of the directors then in office, even though less than a quorum of the Board of Directors, and any director so chosen shall hold office until such director's successor shall have been duly elected and qualified and, if the Board of Directors at such time is classified, until the next election of the class for which such director shall have been chosen. No decrease in the number of authorized directors constituting the Whole Board shall shorten the term of any incumbent director.

Section 4. Removal. Subject to the rights of the holders of any class or series of Preferred Stock, (i) until the election of directors at the 2017 annual meeting of stockholders, any director, or the entire Board of Directors, may be removed from office at any time, but only for cause and only by the affirmative vote of the holders of at least 80 percent of the voting power of all of the then-outstanding shares of capital stock of the Corporation entitled to vote generally in the election of directors (the "Voting Stock"), voting together as a single class, and (ii) from and after the election of the directors at the 2017 annual meeting of stockholders, any director, or the entire Board of Directors, may be removed from office at any time, with or without cause, only by the affirmative vote of the holders of at least 80 percent of the voting power of all the then-outstanding shares of Voting Stock, voting together as a single class.

Section 5. Duties and Powers. The business of the Corporation shall be managed by or under the direction of the Board of Directors which may exercise all such powers of the Corporation and do all such lawful acts and things as are not by statute or by the Restated Certificate of Incorporation or by these By-Laws directed or required to be exercised or done by the stockholders.

Section 6. Meetings. The Board of Directors may hold meetings, both regular and special, either within or without the State of Delaware. Regular meetings of the Board of Directors may be held without notice at such time and at such place as may from time to time be determined by the Board of Directors. Special meetings of the Board of Directors may be called by the Chairman of the Board of Directors, the Chief Executive Officer, the President, or a majority of the Board of Directors. Notice thereof stating the place, date and hour of the special meeting shall be given to each director, either (i) by mail, addressed to each director at their residence or usual place of business and received at least five days before the date on which such meeting is to be held, (ii) personally or by telephone and not later than 24 hours before the date on which such meeting is to be held or (iii) by electronic transmission, at least 24 hours before the date on which such meeting is to be held. A meeting may be held at any time without notice if all the directors are present or if those not present waive notice of the meeting in accordance with Article VI, Section 2. Neither the business to be transacted at, nor the purpose of, any regular or special meeting of the Board of Directors need be specified in the notice of such meeting, except for amendments to these By-Laws, as provided under Article IX, Section 1.

Section 7. Quorum. Except as may be otherwise specifically provided by law, the Restated Certificate of Incorporation or these By-Laws, at all meetings of the Board of Directors, a majority of the Whole Board shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business and the act of a majority of the directors present at any meeting at which there is a quorum shall be the act of the Board of Directors. If a quorum shall not be present at any meeting of the Board of Directors, the directors present thereat may adjourn the meeting from time to time, without notice other than announcement at the meeting, until a quorum shall be present.

Section 8. Actions of Board. Unless otherwise provided by the Restated Certificate of Incorporation or these By-Laws, any action required or permitted to be taken at any meeting of the Board of Directors or of any committee thereof may be taken without a meeting, if all the members of the Board of Directors or committee thereof, as the case may be, consent thereto in writing or by electronic transmission, and the writing or writings (or electronic transmission or transmissions) are filed with the minutes of proceedings of the Board of Directors or committee thereof, as the case may be, in accordance with applicable law.

Section 9. Meetings by Means of Conference Telephone. Unless otherwise provided by the Restated Certificate of Incorporation or these By-Laws, members of the Board of Directors, or any committee designated by the Board of Directors, may participate in a meeting of the Board of Directors or such committee by means of a conference by telephone or other communications equipment by means of which all persons participating in the meeting can hear each other, and participation in a meeting pursuant to this Article III, Section 9 shall constitute presence in person at such meeting.

Section 10. Committees. The Board of Directors may designate one or more committees, each such committee to consist of one or more of the directors of the Corporation. The Board of Directors may designate one or more directors as alternate members of any such committee, who may replace any absent or disqualified member at any meeting of any such committee. In the absence or disqualification of a member of any such committee, and in the absence of a designation by the Board of Directors of an alternate member to replace the absent or disqualified member, the member or members of such committee present at any meeting and not disqualified from voting, whether or not such member or members constitute a quorum, may unanimously appoint another member of the Board of Directors to act at the committee meeting in the place of any absent or disqualified member. Such committees to the extent allowed by law and provided in the resolution establishing such committees, shall have and may exercise all the powers and authority of the Board of Directors in the management of the business and affairs of the Corporation. Each committee shall keep regular minutes and report to the Board of Directors when required. A majority of the members of any such committee may determine its action and fix the time and place of its meetings, unless the Board of Directors shall otherwise provide. Notice of such meetings shall be given to each member of the committee in the manner provided in Article III, Section 6. The Board of Directors shall have the power at any time to fill vacancies in, to change the membership of or to dissolve any such committee. Nothing herein shall be deemed to prevent the Board of Directors from appointing one or more other committees consisting in whole or in part of persons who are not directors of the Corporation; provided, however, that no such committee shall or may exercise any authority of the Board of Directors.

Section 11. Records. The Board of Directors shall cause to be kept a record containing the minutes of the proceedings of the meetings of the Board of Directors and of the stockholders, appropriate stock books and registers and such books of records and accounts as may be necessary for the proper conduct of the business of the Corporation.

ARTICLE IV OFFICERS

Section 1. General. The officers of the Corporation shall be a Chief Executive Officer, a Chief Financial Officer, a Secretary and such other officers (including, without limitation, a President, Chief Operating Officer and a Treasurer) as the Board of Directors may from time to time deem proper, each of whom shall be elected by the Board of Directors; provided, however, the Board of Directors may grant to the Chief Executive Officer the power and authority to appoint the Chief Financial Officer and the Secretary as well as any President, Chief Operating Officer and Treasurer. The Board of Directors, in its discretion, may also choose one or more Division Presidents, Vice Presidents, Assistant Secretaries, Assistant Treasurers and such other officers as the Board of Directors determines are necessary or desirable. All officers elected by the Board of Directors or the Chief Executive Officer, as the case may be, shall each have such powers and duties as generally pertain to their respective offices, subject to the specific provisions of this Article IV. Such officers shall also have such powers and duties as from time to time may be conferred by the Board of Directors (or by any committee thereof) or the Chief Executive Officer. The Board of Directors or any committee thereof, may from time to time elect, or the Chief Executive Officer or the President may appoint, such other officers (including one or more Division Presidents, Vice Presidents, Assistant Vice Presidents, Assistant Secretaries, Assistant Treasurers and Assistant Controllers) and such agents, as may be necessary or desirable for the conduct of the business of the Corporation.
